Decorator Gives Sneerch at Temple Menorah

Curt Wagner, South Bay Interior decorator spoke on "Correlating Art and Interior Decoration" at Monday's meeting of the Temple Menorah Sisterhood, 8 p.m. at the Temple. Wagner whose shop won the "Gift and Art Buyer" magazine's merit award in 1957 gave particular attention to Jewish artists and works of art. His background includes five years with the Boyle-Snyder silver plating Co. and ten years with Allen Adler, silver designer. David Davis, co-decorator of the studio, is an interior design graduate, UCLA and former Charter president of the National Society of Interior Decorators. Mrs. Gene Kaufman, sisterhood president, presided at the brief business meeting following which Mmes. Myra Belford and Melvin Schumacher awarded a portable TV set.

Mrs. Joseph Diluzio featured Mother's Day gifts at the Sisterhood's Judaica Shop during the coffee hour.

Hawaiian Party Planned by Fiesta Committee

The magic of soft mood music in a tropical island setting await harbor and peninsula residents bidden to the Hawaiian Holiday sponsored by the Fiesta Committee of Holy Trinity Church, San Pedro, May 22, at the Hacienda Hotel. The traditional Aloha salute and presentation of leis will be made by Dr. Andrew J. DePaolo, general chairman and Mrs. DePaolo of the first Fiesta event. Receiving guests gowned in native mums will be Mrs. Carl Francis Rogers and Mrs. James J. Finn. Mrs. Eugene Dunn will direct the ballroom decoration committee assisted by Mrs. William J. Malloy. Master of Ceremonies for the royal court, Carl Rogers, will present Miss Carolyn Lane and Miss Beverly Spencer, 1958 Holy Trinity Queens with fresh flower diadems. They in turn will introduce the nine candidates for the role of 1959 Holy Trinity Fiesta Queen. The Milt Jacoby orchestra will play for the 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. dancing. Proceeds from the benefit together with funds raised at the Fiesta slated for May 29, 30 and 31 will be used for the purchase of furnishings for the new Holy Trinity Church now under construction according to Fiesta Director Col. Leslie F. Summerfield.

BOARD MEETING

Dr. Faith Smither, head of the Education Extension, UCLA was the special guest of honor at Tuesday's Board Meeting of the American Association of University Women, held at the home of Dr. Mildred Miller, 622 Paseo de la Playa, Redondo Beach.

TOO MANY COOKS may spoil the stew but four experienced chefs can whip up some pretty tasty hors d'oeuvres. From left, Mmes. Vel Millefich, C. B. Christensen, George Vico and T. L. McClane do just that in preparation for the "Tip

A Canoe" cocktail party Saturday evening at the Polynesian Restaurant. Proceeds from the party will go toward a therapy pool for handicapped children in the area. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Disbrow, Moore Nuptials Exchanged

An evening ceremony at the chapel of the Valley, May 1, united Miss Frances Disbrow and Ronald G. Moore in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Disbrow, 14810 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale, the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore, 14824 Larch Ave., Lawndale.

A dress of frothy lace and tulle over satin was chosen by the bride for the ceremony. The gown featured a prim lace collar, long sleeves and a sweeping skirt of lace tiers.

The overskirt of lace formed a graceful chapel train and her lace edged illusion net veil was carried by a pearl coronet. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Peeler served the bride as Matron of Honor and Miss Judy Moore as bridesmaid. They wore complementary dresses of mint green taffeta and chiffon and carried pink carnations. Donna and Anita Peeler in identical mint green frocks served as flower girls.

Rev. Kenneth Johnson officiated at the service, with Gary Dalton, best man and ushers John Fletcher and Ralph Schaeffle completing the wedding party.

Miss Bonnie Lucy registered the guests at the church reception that followed.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Leuzinger High School. They will make their new home at 48104 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale.

Sobadas Swing Western Style

The Wayfarers Restaurant in Lomita became the "Dodge House" recently when the Sobada Dance Club held its monthly dance.
